Community Participation

Friday, April 15th

From 9:00 – 10:30 a.m.

Holland Street Center, 167 Holland Street

This roundtable, is a social gathering designed to bring current COA volunteers together to share stories and experiences. It also has the added purposed of welcoming new community members to volunteering. The COA offers many opportunities to give time and energy to the Somerville community by becoming involved with the many programs and activities the agency promotes.

This is an informal program with light refreshments and plenty of time for questions and answers.
