

GHOSTS OF SOMERVILLE RISE AGAIN!

The Ghosts of Somerville will rise again on Saturday, October 17th from 4:00 p.m. to dusk, at the Milk Row Cemetery, 400 Somerville Avenue, next to DeMoulas Market Basket. The rain date is the next day, Sunday, at the same time. Historic Somerville, Inc. is producing the event, with help from the Somerville Museum and the Somerville Historic Preservation Commission (SHPC). It is funded in part by a 2009 ArtsUnion Grant from the Massachusetts Cultural Council, John and Abigail Adams Grant Program and proceeds will aid preservation projects throughout the City.

Ghosts of Somerville is a live performance featuring re-enactments of selected members of the deceased interred within the Cemetery and their associates. This year, in addition to meeting Samuel Tufts, Widow Rand and many old favorites, a new character is introduced. Come see which one! Tickets are $8 for adults, and $5 for children 8-12, seniors, and members of Historic Somerville. Children under 8 are admitted free. Hot cider, donuts, and carved pumpkins will be available for sale and as raffle prizes. DRESS WARMLY. Come in costume for added fun.

For more information, contact the SHPC at 617-625-6600 x.2532 or Barbara Mangum via bmangum411@aol.com or 617-331-7726.

www.somervillema.gov/historicpreservation

Mayor Joseph A. Curtatone