

Sunday, May 17, 2–3 p.m.
Dyan Blewett and Vilma Sullivan

The History of Agriculture in Somerville: Early Farms to Current Urban Farming

Vilma F. Sullivan and Dyan R. Blewett are certified Principal Master Gardeners with the Massachusetts Master Gardening Association. Both have served on the board of the Somerville Garden Club for many years and work with other Somerville green groups. They are currently working on planting Milk Row Cemetery with historically accurate plantings. Both are avid gardeners in their flower/vegetable gardens in Somerville.

The lecture will be held at:

The Somerville Museum
One Westwood Road
Somerville, MA 02143

General admission: $8.00; free to members of Historic Somerville
Reception to follow

To reserve your seat(s) or for more information contact:

e-mail: info@historicsomerville.org
web site: www.historicsomerville.org
tel: 617-666-9810