

Historic Somerville 2015 Local History Lecture Series

My Life in the First African-American Aviation Unit of the US Army Force

A talk by Lieutenant Colonel Enoch Woodhouse, USAF, ret'd, one of the surviving members of the Tuskegee Airmen

Enoch Woodhouse II (left) with officers of the USAF at a ceremony honoring the surviving members of the Tuskegee Airmen.

Sunday, April 12, 2–3 p.m., reception to follow

Location: Somerville Museum at the corner of Central St. and Westwood Rd.

General Admission: $8; free to members of HS

For more information: www.historicsomerville.org