

The Real Martian: Earth Explores the Red Planet

Please attend this family friendly presentation to explore Mars and make a connection with the Red Planet that has fascinated Earth starting with H. G. Wells and continuing to Andy Weir's riveting tale of survival!

Jim J. Zebrowski from the Aldrich Astronomical Society, Inc will lead the audience through an amazing tale of exploration that extends from the writer's imagination to Mars orbiters and robots and culminates with the first human settlers on the Red Planet!

Spacey door prizes will be offered and Aldrich will host an outdoor observing event if the weather permits!

★ Space! ★ Mars Soil Simulant! ★ Telescopes! ★ Rovers!

The Mars One project makes it possible to live in a world beyond our grasp. It aims to establish the first human colony on a foreign planet by 2024!
