

Historic Somerville, Inc., The Somerville Museum and the Somerville Historic Preservation Commission proudly present:

THE THIRD ANNUAL GHOSTS OF SOMERVILLE

Saturday, October 20th, 2007 4PM - Dusk
Rain Date October 21st.

Learn something new about Somerville history from those who lived it! The Ghosts of Somerville is a delightful play featuring characters buried within our local historic burial ground, Milk Row Cemetery. Those visiting from the past including Samuel Tufts, Rev. Phineas Howe, Emiline Dane, Private George Bean, Widow Rand, Harriet Thorpe and a British soldier. The play takes place out of doors, at the Milk Row Cemetery. Dress warmly and come in costume if you like. Hot cider and goodies will be available for sale.

$5 per Adult

Children under 12 and Seniors over 65: $3

The Ghosts of Somerville is produced by Historic Somerville, Inc. with the assistance of The Somerville Museum and the Somerville Historic Preservation Commission to raise awareness of the history and cultural treasures of Somerville and funds for their care. If you are unable to come, but wish to contribute or learn more about our organization, please contact: Historic Somerville, 9 Josephine Ave., Somerville, MA 02144. Historic Somerville Inc. is a registered nonprofit corporation in the state of Massachusetts.

The Cemetery is located just west of Market Basket at 400 Somerville Ave., on the edge of Union Square in Somerville, MA. From further abroad, Somerville Ave. is easily reached by car via I-93 or McGrath Highway or public transit via Somerville Ave. or Union Sq. For further information ask for the Historic Preservation Commission at City Hall: 617-625-6600.

Mayor Joseph Curtatone